Dear Memo

Got the cake and cookies, they were better than ever.

Glad to know Babo is getting a break. Wish I would get the same kind of break.

We missed 2 weeks of school and I am going to miss another this week because I am on duty in the battery. I hate that because I am almost through.

We went on a 10 mile bike last week and surprised myself by making it all the way there and back.

This part of Texas sure is pretty now that spring is here. The state flower is the Blue Bonnet, and you can see them scattered all over. Some places they blanket the whole side of the hills.

How did Claire come out in her cloverton contest? Or was that the final that you told me about?

Did Babo find out definitely the date of her funeral?

Tell her thanks a lots possible. How are Corine and Adrian?

I wrote Bako not very long ago and asked him if he could wear the size shoes I bought when I was back home. I can't wear them, I've tried several at times and each time
they kept me in misery.
I haven't heard from him yet.
If he can't wear them I'll send them to Leo.

Fill Dad hells and love to all -

Your affectionate son,
Brother
