Prominent Louisiana Dead

Mr. Jules Jeanmard, father of our druggist, George E. and the Rev. Jules Jeanmard of the New Orleans diocese, died at his home in Carencro Wednesday and was interred in the cemetery there on Thursday.

Mr. Jeanmard visited here quite frequently and enjoyed the highest respect of all with whom he came in contact. His son from here was in attendance during his last illness and was present at the funeral services Thursday.
